Good morning.
I have been in contact with LFCS concerning A2A clients in Marshfield. It doesn't make economic sense to have two different case managers visiting two clients in the same household, especially a mother and daughter. We agreed to transfer [redacted] back to LFCS and they will service mother and daughter. I think this still has to be done through you. I have enrolled [redacted] in the new database but have no services or charges for her.
